

ASANC Awards

Committee Composition

The immediate past President shall chair the Awards Committee. The President shall appoint two additional members to the committee by June 1st, 2011. If a member of the Awards Committee is nominated for an award, that person cannot be involved in the selection process and shall be replaced by the President.

Types of Awards

There shall be awards given in the following categories:

Self Advocate of the Year

- Is a strong advocate for persons with disabilities Speaks out on behalf of persons with disabilities
- Takes a leadership role in helping people with disabilities to become better advocates
- Has helped to bring about change that has benefited people with disabilities

Self Advocacy Group Award for Advocacy

- Makes advocacy a priority in what the group does
- Works to make the needs of persons with disabilities known
- Has brought about change that has benefited people with disabilities

Process

Awards nomination information must be sent to the general membership no later than June 15, 2011. Information about each award category and a nomination form shall be provided to the membership.

2011 ASANC Annual Award - NOMINATION FORM

Nomination Submitted by:

Name _____

Advocate Escort Professional Personal Care Aide

Self-advocate Board Member Officer of Local Self-advocacy group

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____

E-Mail _____

Nominee for Award:

Self-advocate OR Group Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____

E-Mail _____

Category of Nomination - Please check one:

Self Advocate of the Year

Self Advocacy Group Award for Advocacy

On the BACK of this form, please tell us: why you are nominating this person/group?

Completed nominations must be received by 5:00 p.m., Thursday, June 17, 2011.

Faxed nominations will be accepted.

